JACOB BURNS FILM CENTER ANNOUNCES “SCREENINGS UNDER THE STARS”

JBFC partners with the Village of Pleasantville to present free outdoor movie

Pleasantville, NY – June 16, 2010 – The Jacob Burns Film Center (JBFC), a cultural arts institution with a dual mission of film and education, announced today the screening date for “Screenings Under the Stars,” a free outdoor movie presented in partnership with the Village of Pleasantville. The screening will take place on Saturday, September 4 at sundown at Parkway Field on Marble Avenue in Pleasantville. The raindate will be the following day, Sunday, September 5.

JBFC will be conducting online voting for what movie will be shown. The five options for voting include:

- North by Northwest
- Spirited Away
- Some Like It Hot
- Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade
- Mary Poppins

To vote, please log onto <http://www.burnsfilmcenter.org>. Voting is open to everyone and will remain open until Thursday, July 15. The screening will be preceded by an animated short film created by students in the JBFC education program MINDS IN MOTION.

The Jacob Burns Film Center (JBFC) is a nonprofit cultural arts organization dedicated to: presenting the best of independent, documentary, and world cinema; promoting 21st century literacy, and making film a vibrant part of the community. Located on a 47,500 sq. foot, three-building campus in the center of Pleasantville, the JBFC is just 30 miles outside of New York City. Since the opening in 2001, over 1,000,000 people have seen over 3,000 films from more than 40 countries. The campus includes the 27,000 sq. feet Media Arts Lab, the JBFC’s state-of-the-art education center, a creative and educational community for storytellers in the digital age, offering one-time workshops, intensive courses, and weekend programs for children and adults of all ages.
